

COLLISION

Our father in heaven
Has welcomed all into communion
With one another as we sing
Hallowed be your name.

The marriage together of prayer and hospitality
Allows your kingdom to come
As we grow in spirituality
Learning to let your will be done.

May we encourage and welcome
Each other as we are all invited to the table
On earth as it is in heaven.
Where you give us today our daily bread
That we may share with those stuck in their head.

Lord, you forgive us our sins if we but believe
And we pray and ask to grow in the truth of community
When we are forgiven as we forgive those who sinned against me.

We come together and rest a while
Knowing you will save us from the time of trial
Inviting all in for support to heal
And resting in the truth that you will deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom in hospitality invites all to come near,
The power or prayer empowers us to love without fear
And the glory of God shines as we come together
Because we are yours now and forever. Amen.
